Dear Sir Ismail,

As-salam Alekum. Your kind note dated 20th instant just to hand and caused me much pleasure.

There were expectations that Lord Mountbatten before his departure would solve the Hyderabad affairs, but he could not do anything as 'Sardar' did not agree to his proposal of granting internal independance. Now, all are depending on Raja Ji's decision. Let us see what is he going to do. I am certain that the Ittehadis will never appreciate his suggestions as well. However, it is a decided factor that there is bound to be the gravest disaster and unprecedented conflict and this fool will definitely bring ruin to the Nizam's dynasty. This Government is not at all so efficient as to discuss with the smart politicians of the Indian Union and bring about an effective solution. It is a known fact that Nizam is under the thumb of Ittehadis. Whatever they say, he acts accordingly with a firm hope that if the Indian Union takes an aggressive step or launches an attack, the sympathies of the entire Islamic countries will be with him. On one side, Pakistan will declare war against India and all the Islamic countries, viz- Iraq, Arabia, Turky, Afghanistan, and Frontier Pathans will wage war on the other. But, I with a profound regret, can say that it is a sheer madness. I am much perplexed. To seek shelter behind false hopes in order to escape the final verdict of the people, is a vain and hopeless attempt. Can you not interfere in this matter in any way. I heard all what has been broadcasted about you from the Hyderabad Radio Station and feel very sorry. Though I brought this matter to the notice of H.E.H., but he observed silence. In fact, he is unable to exercise his powers. He cannot go against the will of the Ittehadis. It is a great pity that Hyderabad will definitely be destroyed in the coming revolution. If the matters come to such a push, will you please help me to despatch a chartered plane from Bangalore. I am prepared to spend as much amount as you say. It is better to pre-arrange. I am in a great fix and there is no way out. I have no confidence in H.E.H. He is a man of selfish motives.

All Yawar Jung is still here. I do not know what arrangements he has made. Zain Yar Jung arrived here yesterday. He is under the impression that Raja Ji, after a careful study, would review the terms of settlement. When I get letters from you, it consoles me considerably.

With best regards.

Note:- The writer of the letter is a Private Secretary to H.E.H. the Nizam.
